

Reading

A. Put these sentences in the correct order.

- a. Convinced that his room was full of mice, Uncle Ken spent the night on an old sofa in the storeroom. 7
- b. Suddenly two mice peeped out from his clothes. 6
- c. After his return, the speaker hid the white mice in the box carefully. 1
- d. Grandfather had already guessed about the mice and joined the fun by telling Uncle Ken to remove his clothes. 5
- e. After everyone had gone to bed, Uncle Ken came running up, screaming about mice running inside his clothes. 4
- f. The speaker hid the mice under the bed sheet in his uncle's room. 3
- g. He had thought of a plan to take revenge on Uncle Ken. 2

Question Answers.

Read these lines from the text and answer the questions.

1. Mr. Ghosh's house was just behind the station.

a. Who was Mr. Ghosh?

Ans. Mr. Ghosh was a station master at Lucknow.

b. Why did the speaker go to his house?

Ans. The speaker boarded the wrong train from Dehradun. Now he had to wait for his grandfather to come so he went to his house.

c. What did he do there?

Ans. Mr. Ghosh offered him eatable. He also showed him his pet white mice on a miniature railway set to him.

2. "A present for you and your grandfather!"

a. Who said this to whom?

Ans. Mr. Ghosh said this to the young boy.

b. What was the present?

Ans. The present was a box that had two white mice.

c. Why did the speaker decide upon that particular gift?

Ans. He noticed that the boy and his grandfather liked white mice so he decided to gift them two of the mice.

Answer in detail.

1. Why did uncle ken rush out of his room?

Ans. To play a prank on his uncle the boy released the mice under his uncle's bedsheets. They entered Ken's clothes so he rushed out of his room to get help.

2. How did Grandfather try to solve Uncle Ken's problem?

Ans. When uncle came out of his room screaming grandfather understood whole story. To have more fun he suggested uncle to remove his clothes.

Grammar

A. Pick out the common, proper, collective and Abstract nouns from this paragraph and write them down in the proper columns.

Azar went down to the Torsa one morning. He sat down on the riverbank, watching the sunrise. A flock of birds was flying in the sky, chirping with happiness. The beauty of the place filled him with peace. After some time, a herd of elephant gathered under the trees to drink water and started squirting water on each other, playfully. Azar watched the scene with delight.

Common	Proper	Collective	Abstract
morning, river,	Azar		happiness flock of birds
bank, sun, sky, place,	Torsa		beauty herd of elephant
tree, water, scene			peace delight

B. Tick whether the underlined words in these sentences are Countable nouns or uncountable nouns.

- Charu knows the capitals of all the countries in the world.(countable✓/ uncountable)
- Ethan sat in the small patch of sunshine by the door. (Countable /uncountable✓)
- Ira bought new dresses on my birthday.(Countable ✓/uncountable)
- The sun was shining over the mountains.(Countable✓ /uncountable)
- May I borrow two pencils from Sam?(Countable✓ /uncountable)

6. Ali kept a cup of water for the birds. (Countable✓ /uncountable)

Grammar Fun

1. Chalk-countable.
2. Music- Uncountable.
3. Smoke-Uncountable.
4. Photographs-Countable.
5. Soup-uncountable.
6. Traffic-Uncountable.
7. Monkey-Countable.
8. Child- countable.
9. Box- Countable.

C. Underline the subject and circle the object in these sentences.

1. Manik returned the books yesterday.

2. The giraffes are eating leaves.

3. The child is buying a muffin.

4. The bird followed Tammy.

5. Ethan brought the goats home.

6. We found the missing card.

7. I cannot hear Latha.

Vocabulary

Choose the correct antonyms of the highlighted words.

1. Maya was carrying a heavy bag.

a. Small b. Light ☒ c. dark

2. The swimming pool was a very deep in the middle.

a. Shallow ☒ b. wide c. High

3. The mathematics paper was quite easy.

a. Soft b. Strong c. Difficult ☒

4. The dancers were wearing beautiful dresses.

a. Ugly ☒ b. Dirty c. Colourful

5. They boy was using a blunt pencil to draw.

a. Narrow b. Real c. Sharp ☒

6. The shop closed early on Sundays.

a. Opened b. Late ☒ c. Stayed. Spelling

Listen to the words and complete them using al, el or le.

1. possible

2. Vehicle

3. Several

4. Squirrel

5. Channel

6. Cancel

7. Tassel

