

Read to understand

A Answer these questions with reference to the context

1 'nothing on earth could have persuaded the to to return'

a who are the two referred to in this extract ?

ans. The two medical students of Medical College are referred as two in this extract

b where were they at this moment? Why?

ans. They were at a symmetry digging into the grave for dead body.

c why could they not be persuaded?

ans. The thunder was loud enough to shock Henry Armstrong who set up in the casket the the students held in panic when they saw the Dead. Man rise they were so terrified that they could not be persuaded to return

2 'i am waiting for my pay he said'

a who said these words?

Ans. Jess said these words.

b who was to pay him and for what ?

ans. To medical college students were to pay him for the dead body of Henry Armstrong.

c where was the speaker at this moment ?

ans. At this moment the speaker was in the detecting room in the medical college.

B state whether the following statements are true or false

1 the weather was quite pleasant false

2 Henry Armstrong gain consciousness while he was buried true

3 there were other people in the graveyard apart from the three young men false

4 jess was a professor who had offered to help the two students false

5 there was a horse and Wagon beside the grave false

6 the casket was taken out of the grave true

C answer these questions

1 Why did the young students feel reasonably secure ?

Ans. There were flashes of lightning and the signals of a storm on that dark summer night it was not a night in which any witness whose word could be depended on was likely to be moving about symmetry so the three men who were their digging into to the grave of Henry Armstrong felt reasonably secure.

2 what were the horse and the Wagon waiting for ? why were they are outside the wall ?

Ans. The horse and the Wagon would be used to transfer the dead body to the detecting room of the medical college they were outside the wall so so that no one would become suspicious about their presence or ask questions

3 how do you know that jess was of another breed ?

Ans. Jess did not run away in fear his daring response is the unusual sight shows that he was both brave and practical 4 the two medical students were still in a frightened state the next day how do you know this ?

Ans. The two medical college students were still in frightened state the next day because their facial expressions Pallid and haggard from anxiety and terror showed this also there short verbal exchange you so it shows that the image of the Dead Man rising was still fresh in their minds

Discuss and write

1 Why do you think the students wanted the dead body ?

Ans. The students wanted the dead body because they've needed the dead body to study human anatomy.

2 what arrangement do you think the students had made with jess?

Ans. The medical students would have promised the Jess to pay for the dead body.

3 the students were secure about what they were doing because of the absence of any witnesses do you think this feeling of guilt indicates a guilt on their part justify your response.

Ans. No they had no sense of guilt because they were removing the dead body to study human anatomy.

Expand words.

A match the expressions in column a with their meanings in column b

1 to see red -- to become very angry

2 to catch someone red handed --to catch someone in the act of doing something wrong

3 to have a Green Thumb --to be good at gardening or growing plants

4 to be black and blue -- to have injury marks and bruises on one's body

5 out of the blue -- to happen suddenly unexpectedly or without warning usually a happy occurrence

6 blue in the face --to try doing something as hard and as long as you possibly can but without success

B complete the following sentences by using the expressions from the previous exercise change the verb forms if necessary

1 I was thrilled when Preet turned up out of blue.

2 the man was caught red handed selling the stolen goods.

3s have you seen her Garden I wish I should have a Green Thumb like her.

4 she can keep arguing till she is blue in face it will still not convince me.

5 Rahul went red when he discovered his friend had lied to him.

6 though he did not have any fractures the accident left him all black and blue.

Grammar

Types of phrases

A replace the underlined adjective phrase with suitable adjectives one has been done for you

2 she likes wearing dresses made of silk. Silk dresses.

3 the author from America has written this book. American author.

4 The robbers took away all the jewellery made of gold. Golden jewellery.

5 there are many houses in the mountains made of wood. wooden houses.

B complete the sentences with suitable phrases according to the given instructions.

1 can you please tell me where is my pen {noun phrase}

2 Have you read the book {noun phrase}

3 do you have a book on Maths {adjective phrase}

4 the pool where I swim is very big {adjective phrase}

5 the birds fly very high in the evening {adverb phrase}

6 they will work very hard to complete the decorations {adverb phrase}.

Types of clauses

A tick yes or no for the following statements to revise clauses.

1 a dependent clause has a subject and . yes

2 an independent clause shows complete thought. Yes

3 a dependent clause shows incomplete thought and needs another clause to complete its meaning. Yes

B. Match the independent clauses in column a with the dependent clause in column B to make meaningful sentences

1 I immediately phone the police-- when I heard the explosion

2 we cannot go out -- because it is raining

3 the air hostess was so tired -- that she could not make the announcement.

4 I asked if I could borrow her book -- but she refused.

5 we are going to Delhi for three days --and they are going to Singapore.

C. The sentences with suitable if clauses.

1 I don't like lifts even if I get sick

2 if I had a call I would have come at once

3 if you had worked hard you would have done better

4 if I had more money I would have bought you a new dress

5 if you do not take the pet to a doctor it will not survive

6 if you know English please fill this form

7 if you make a garden you would take it up as a hobby

8 if she was brought up in a city she would have done a better job.

