

(Page no. 16) Reading

A. Answer these questions.

1. There was confusion everywhere. What was happening in the forest?

Ans1. The sun was hiding behind the hill; there was darkness everywhere, so the animals were not able to see each other.

2. Who called out the sun first?

Ans2. The lion called out the sun first.

3. What happened when the peacock danced and called?

Ans3. The sun refused to come out from behind the hill.

4. The sun peeped out from behind the hill to see who was calling. Who did the sun listen to?

Ans4. The Sun listened to the call of the rooster.

5. The animals were delighted. What made the animals happy in the end?

Ans5. There was light everywhere, this made all the animals happy.

B. Say true (T) or not true (NT).

1. The elephants bumped into the trees when it was dark. (T)

2. The other animals said the lion should go first. (NT)

3. The sun came out when the elephant called. (NT)

4. The sun peeped out when the rooster called out. (T)

Grammar (page no. 17)

A. Tick(✓) the correct words to complete these sentences.

1. Renu is my best friend. (He / She / It) is very sweet.

2. Mr. Gomez is the principal of our school. (He / She / It) is in his office.

3. Samik and I are neighbours. (They / You / We) often play together.

4. My cat is on the sofa. (They / It / You) is sleeping.

5. The boys are very excited. (They / We / You) are playing cricket.

6. The woman in the photograph is my mother. (He / She / It) is very tall.

B. Rewrite the second sentence with he, she, it, we or they in place of the words in colour.

1. Kate is not well. Kate went to the doctor.

She went to the doctor.

2. Mother and I went to the library. Mother and I saw many books.

We saw many books.

3. Where is the cat? The cat is under the chair.

It is under the chair.

4. The man is walking fast. The man is in a hurry.

He is in a hurry.

5. Where are the three birds? The three birds have flown away.

They have flown away.

(Page no.19) Vocabulary

Complete this story with the correct animal sounds.

roaring	crowing	chattering	quacking	trumpeting	mooing
---------	---------	------------	----------	------------	--------

Payal was at her grandmother's farm. It was close to a zoo. One day, Payal woke up to the loud ^{1.} crowing of the rooster. The ducks were ^{2.} quacking loudly in the pond. A cow was ^{3.} mooing at the ducks. They were so sacred! Suddenly, she heard loud sounds coming from the zoo. The lions were ^{4.} roaring, the elephants were ^{5.} trumpeting and the monkeys were ^{6.} chattering. Grandmother told Payal, "You see, it is time for the animals to eat!"

(Page no.20) Speaking

Work in pairs. Make polite requests to your friend using please.

1. Your friend has a book. You want to look at it.
Please, can I look at your book, Rajesh?
2. You want a piece of cake. Ask your mother.
Please can I have a piece of cake, Mother?
3. Two of your friends are fighting. Ask them to stop fighting.
Could you please stop fighting with each other?
4. Your father is going out. You want him get you a chocolate.
Please could you get me a chocolate, Father?

(Page no. 21) Punctuation

Rewrite these sentences with capital letters and full stops.

1. the sun is fast asleep
The sun is fast asleep.
2. i live in pune
I live in Pune.
3. we like to eat rice
We like to eat rice.
4. mary and ali are best friends
Mary and Ali are best friends.
5. the tiger walks in the forest
The tiger walks in the forest.
6. pinky is a good girl
Pinky is a good girl.
7. mira and anoop are in the shop
Mira and Anoop are in the shop.
8. a squirrel is playing with a flower
A squirrel is playing with a flower.
9. anne is in the living room
Anne is in the living room.

10. the little girl plays with a ball
The little girl plays with a ball.

(Page no. 22) Writing

Look at these pictures. They show you how these animals spend their day.

1. Sleep-branch - The owl sleeps on a branch.
2. Play-trees - The monkeys play on the trees.
3. Eat-grass - The deer eats the grass.
4. Bathe-river - The elephant bathes in the river.
5. Rest-sunshine - The crocodile rests in the sunshine.
6. Talk-friends - The parrots talk to their friends.

