

Exercises

Page no 20

Let's think and answer.

1. Did Varsha mean to hurt Parna? What makes you think so?

Ans. No, Varsha did not mean to hurt Parna. We think so because by mistake the red light cracked a little.

2. Why could Parna not forgive Varsha?

Ans. Parna could not forgive Varsha because she was very angry and upset with her.

3. How could Parna feel when Mother told her that she did not forgive her for breaking her vase?

Ans. Parna understood how people feel when they are not forgiven for a mistake. She felt bad for not forgiving Varsha.

4. What made Parna forgive Varsha?

Ans. When Parna understood how people feel when they are not forgiven for a mistake, she felt bad for not forgiving Varsha. This motivated Parna to forgive Varsha.

Let's talk about these

1. Three things for which you need to forgive each other in class.

Ans. Three things for which I need to forgive others in my class are: for taking my things without asking for them, for being rude to me, for having small fights with me.

2. Three ways in which you can forgive someone.

Ans. Three ways in which I can forgive someone are: by recalling the good things that the person did for me, by remembering the good qualities of him/her, by shaking hands with him/her.

3. Make a list of some words or sentences to say to someone when you forgive them.

Ans. Some words or sentences that I can say to someone when I forgive them are:

- It's alright.
- That's okay. I'm glad we are friends again.
- It's really nice to hear from you. Don't worry about what happened.
- Never mind, you can make up for it later.