Answer these questions

1. What does the east wind do in the month of June?

Ans: The moist east wind blows through the bamboo grove during the month of June, making a sound similar to bagpipes.

2. What does the speaker see while the storm clouds rumble in the sky?

Ans: When the storm clouds rumble in the sky, the speaker notices a crowd of flowers dancing happily upon the grass.

3. Where do the flowers stay all year? What does the speaker imagine?

Ans: The speaker imagines that all year round the flowers go to an underground school. He thinks that the flowers study behind the closed doors and their strict teacher doesn't, allow them to go out and let them play. They only come out in June month when their school closes for vacations.

4. How does the speaker describe the storm?

Ans: During the storm, the branches hit against one another and leaves make rustling sound. Clouds collide with each other and clap their giant hands. The flowers come out in colourful dresses and dance upon the grass.

5. Who do the Flowers raise their arms up to?

Ans: The flowers raise their arms up to their mother who stays in the sky just like speaker's mother.
