

Moral sci (ch - 2 Philanthropy and Charity) pg no.12

A. Complete the following sentence:-

1. Whenever anyone undertakes charity, he/she must never expect anything in return for the act.
2. Charity should therefore never be advertised or talked about.
3. Most charitable organisations are non-government organisations.
4. Since its inception Sir Ratan Tata Trust disbursed over $60 million towards its commitment.
5. The primary task of the Missionaries of charity is Love and care for those persons nobody was prepared to look after .

B. Answer the following questions.

Ans-1. The news that Zell Kravinsky wanted to donate one of his kidney to someone in need. His friends and family received this news with mixed views.

Ans-2. Charitable organisations are non –government organisations (NGOs) and are not-for-profit. They are set up to give charitable organisations a platform to do philanthropic work.

Ans-3. CRY (Child Relief and you) –it started as a small organization with just ₹ 50 by a young man called Rippan Kapur along with his six friends. It was their dream to do something to change the lives of millions of poor children in India.

Ans-4. CARE focus on upliftment of women to fighting poverty and social injustice and marginalised sections of society.

Ans-5. Sir Ratan Tata Trust was set up in 1919, a year after the demise of Sir Ratan Tata at the age of 47.

Chapter -3 (Self – confidence)

A. Answer the following questions.

Ans-1. Hrithik Roshan had a speaking disability and he stammered while speaking .

Ans-2. He had a difficult time at school as the children laughed at him and some teased too.

Ans-3. He joined speech therapy classes to overcome his stammering.

Ans-4. With his willpower and determination , he finally managed to get rid of stammering.

Ans-5. People who are confident are more relaxed and attempt to solve problems. Such people feel that they have the ability and skill to do a given task . They are cheerful ,full of hope, bright and always expect the best to happen.
