

Let's think and answer

Q1. What was the boy doing for the merchant?

Ans1. The servant boy was fanning the rich merchant.

Q2. Why did the fanning stop?

Ans2. The fanning stopped because the tired servant boy was unable to bear the heat any longer and fell asleep.

Q3. What did the rich merchant do for the servant boy?

Ans3. The rich merchant picked up the fan and fanned the sleeping servant boy.

Q4. What does this tell us about the merchant?

Ans4. This tells us that the rich merchant was an empathetic man who gave the servant boy the same service he received from the boy.

Let's talk about these

Q1. What kind of people do you feel empathy for?

Ans1. People, who are homeless, people affected by disasters, elderly people who have no one to take care of them.

Q2. Who usually feels empathetic towards you? Why?

Ans2. Friends, parents, sibling, teachers. They are close to you; they love you and care for you.