

A. Answer these questions.

1. Why was the speaker annoyed?

Ans. The speaker was annoyed with a bird that sang by his house all day.

2. What irritated him the most? How did he try to solve the problem?

Ans. The bird's song irritated him most. He tried to solve the problem by clapping his hands to scare away the bird.

3. In the beginning, whose fault did the speaker think it was? Whose fault did he think it was later?

Ans. In the beginning, the speaker thought that it was bird's fault but later he realised that wanting to silence any song was wrong and the fault is his.

