

Exercises

Multiple choice questions.

1. It display the properties of the selected object
Ans- c. Properties Panel
2. Timeline consists of a sequence of
Ans – b. Images
3. The Line tool helps us to draw
Ans- a. Lines
4. The Oval tool helps us to draw
Ans- b. Circles
5. Which of these tools helps us select an object on the Stage?
Ans- a. Selection tool
6. We use this command to make multiple objects move together
Ans- a. Group command
7. To select an object using the Selection tool we should click on it
Ans- b. Twice
8. Use this tool to resize or rotate an object
Ans- c. Free Transform tool
9. Which tool draws shapes with more than three sides?
Ans- c. Polystar tool
10. Use this command to change a text string into individual alphabets
Ans- b. Break Apart

Write (T) for True and (F) for False.

1. The blue square in the timeline is the play head. False
2. The Properties Panel displays the properties of the selected object. True
3. The Rectangle tool lets you select the object on the stage. False
4. Using the Rectangle tool, you can draw stars. False
5. The Free Transform tool lets you scale, rotate and skew your shapes. True
6. Using the Paint Bucket tool, you can select the stroke colour and change the colour, width and style of the lines drawn as well as the outlines. False

Fill in the blanks.

1. The Stage is your workspace.
2. The Timeline consists of divisions of frames arranged on a numbered grid.
3. A Frame is a single step of animation or a picture on the Flash timeline.
4. The Selection tool lets you select the object on the stage.
5. Using the Line tool, you can draw straight lines.
6. The term Stroke refers to the outline of the object.
7. We can Group objects so that they behave like a single unit.

Answer in one word/sentence.

1. Which tool lets us scale, rotate and skew shapes?
Ans- Free Transform tool lets us scale, rotate and skew shapes.
2. What do you call the component that consists of divisions of frames arranged on a numbered grid?
Ans- The Timeline consists of divisions of frames arranged on a numbered grid.
3. What is the workspace in Flash known as?
Ans- The workspace in Flash is known as Stage.
4. What happens when we use the Break Apart command twice on a text string?
Ans- 1. You can break apart text to place each character in a separate text block.
2. You can break apart each text block to change it to its components(fills and lines).

5. Which tool is used to select the stroke colour and change the colour, width and style of the lines drawn and outlines?

Ans- Ink Bottle tool is used to select the stroke colour and change the colour, width and style of the lines drawn and outlines.

6. What is the use of Faucet mode in the Eraser tool?

Ans- It is used to erase the object completely.

7. What is a frame?

Ans- A frame is a single step of animation or a picture on the Flash timeline.

Give Short Answers.

1. Write what you know about the Flash software.

Ans- The Flash software is used to develop interactive graphics and animations which can be used on a website or any other multimedia purpose.

2. Write about the Timeline.

Ans- The Timeline consists of division of frames arranged on a numbered grid. It consists the sequence of images (in frames) which make the animation.

3. What are the Rectangle and Oval tools used for?

Ans- The Rectangle tool helps us to draw rectangles and squares.

The Oval tool helps us to draw circles and ovals.

4. What is the use of the Free Transform tool?

Ans- The Free Transform tool lets you scale, rotate and skew your shapes.

5. What is the difference between the Ink Bottle tool and the Paint Bucket tool?

Ans- Ink Bottle tool– Using the Ink Bottle , you can select the stroke colour and change the colour, width and style of the lines drawn and outlines.

Paint Bucket Tool – Using the Paint Bucket tool, you can select the colour to fill and fill it in any closed shape; or change the already filled area.

