

Exercises

(Page no. 67)

Ex. A Read these lines and answer these questions.

1. The chowkidar of the garden is a very busy man.

a. Who is a chowkidar?

Ans a. A chowkidar is a person who guards a place.

b. Why is the chowkidar busy?

Ans b. The chowkidar is busy in keeping out little boys and chasing away birds and monkeys that come to eat the fruits.

2. The mango tree is a tall and majestic tree.

a. Why is it majestic?

Ans a. Because it is big and tall tree.

b. What is mango fruit known as?

Ans b. The King of fruits.

c. What are different things we can make from a mango fruit?

Ans c. Pickles, chutneys, jams, mango shake , aam papad etc..

3. The people of the town tell a story about how the town got its name.

a. What story do these people tell?

Ans a. There was a mango garden with thousand trees in the centre of Hazaribagh.

b. What does the name of the town mean?

Ans b. Hazar means a thousand and bagh means a garden in Hindi.

Ex B Match the action to the doers.

1. Peck at the fruits - Birds
2. Creep into the mango grove – naughty children
3. Runs after naughty children -- Chowkidar
4. Swing from the branches – monkeys

Grammar

Ex A Match the words in A with the pictures in B. Then, write the adjectives and the nouns in the space given below.

1. Round ball
2. Soft teddy bear
3. Heavy bag
4. Sour grapes
5. Big elephant
6. Yellow mango

Ex B. Circle the adjectives and underline the nouns they describe.

1. The round table is near the sofa.
2. Ramita wears long pink ribbons in her hair.
3. The road he was walking down was very narrow.
4. The baby plays with the light fluffy pillow.
5. Rekha told me that the book was very interesting.
6. Mother cut a big round watermelon.

Vocabulary

Look at these pictures. Complete the sentences with the correct movement words from the box.

crawled	Stretched	Jumped	hopped	danced	swarmed
---------	-----------	--------	--------	--------	---------

1. The rabbits hopped around the garden.
2. Leela stretched her arms after waking up.
3. Tiya danced round and round on the stage.
4. Many bees swarmed around the hive.
5. Manoj jumped over the wall to fetch the ball.
6. The baby crawled on the floor.

Punctuation

Place commas(,) in the correct places in these sentences.

1. Usha likes to play with Smita, Sana, Rita and Jane.
2. There are five cows, three ducks, one goat and two sheep on the farm.
3. Karen has two pencils, one eraser, one sharpener and two rulers.
4. Nina spent the day eating, reading, dancing and playing.
5. It is very cold in Delhi in November, December, January and February.
6. Mother bought apples, oranges, bananas, guavas, mangoes and a coconut.