

Exercise

A. Tick (✓) the right option.

Page no. 28, 29

1. A mouse usually has _____ buttons
 - a. One
 - b. Two
 - c. Three [✓]
2. We should always keep the mouse on a
 - a. Glass
 - b. Book
 - c. Mousepad [✓]

B. Fill in the blanks with the correct words.

Page no. 28, 29

(Wire, mouse-pointer, mousepad, dropping, scroll-wheel)

1. A mousepad keeps the mouse free from dust and dirt.
2. Wire connects the mouse to the CPU-Box.
3. Scroll - wheel button helps us to move a page up and down.
4. When the computer is ON, we see an arrow on the monitor. It is the mouse-pointer.
5. Releasing the mouse button after dragging is called dropping.

C. Think and answer.

Page no. 28, 29

1. What is clicking?

Ans: - press and release the mouse button is clicking.

2. What is meant by single clicking and double clicking?

Ans: - single clicking- press the left Mouse button once and release it.

Double clicking- press the left mouse button twice and release it.

3. What is the use of a single click and a double click?

Ans: - single click- A single click selects an item.

Double click- A double click opens an item.
