

Exercises

Exercise A

Match the subjects with suitable predicates.

- |                |                                   |
|----------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. An elephant | has a long nose called the trunk. |
| 2. Monkeys     | have long tails.                  |
| 3. The woman   | is our new science teacher.       |
| 4. Our maid    | is cooking dinner.                |
| 5. Father      | is feeding the hens.              |
| 6. The twins   | are helping father mow the grass. |
| 7. Miss Maria  | is the most lazy woman.           |
| 8. Richad      | is boarding a bus.                |
| 9. Sally       | is my aunt's friend.              |
| 10. Joe        | is baking a cake.                 |

Exercise B

Supply suitable predicates for the following subjects from the box.

1. The gifts are neatly packed.
2. Santa has a large bag on his back.
3. He has a long white flowing beard.
4. His bag is tightly packed with gifts.
5. A tight belt encircles his pot belly.