

Patience and Delayed Gratification.

A.

1. a. forgo an immediate reward
2. b. a learnable quality.
3. b experience a sense of achievement
4. c. identify it.
5. a. emotion and our rational mind.

B.

1. Amir khan go for dubbing in the early hours of morning because he felt that his voice sounded better in the morning.
This says that he himself always planned out for a shot that will be appreciated later by the audience.
2. R. K. Laxman visited many times to railway station and bus stops just for drawing people sitting in different postures and different outfits.
3. To get into an IIT or a prestigious MBA programme a man need dedicated hard work. They forgo their sleep, give their favourite TV programmes and many times have to remain cut off their circle friends for months. They have to spend months on training.
4. We learnt from the life of Nelson Mandela patience and long struggle made a man successful in life .
Quality of long struggle , great willpower, great courage, patience and great moral character - these are the great qualities that Nelson Mandela was made a great leader.
5. Apartheid is the policy of racial discrimination practised in South Africa. Blacks were discriminated by the Whites based on their caste and colour once in South Africa where minority regime was there over the majority.

#####