

1. Complete this dialogue.

Osman: How did you like the film you saw yesterday?

Rohit: I loved it.

Osman: What kind of film was it?

Rohit: It is an action film. The makers are coming out with it's sequel soon.

Osman: You should go and watch it too.

Rohit: Yes, I will definitely go for that one.

2. Read the passage and write a short dialogue between two friends based on it.

My new friend asked me whether I liked my school. I replied that I love my school very much. Then she asked which subject I liked the most. I told her that I enjoy my history classes the most because I'm interested in knowing about the past. She too said that she liked history very much.

Ans:

Friend: Do you like your school?

Me: I loved my school very much.

Friend: Which subject do you like the most?

Me: I enjoy history classes the most because I'm interested in knowing about the past.

Friend: Even I like history very much.

3. Read the passage and write a short dialogue between a mother and a daughter.

A mother told her daughter that since she had been studying all morning, she should rest for an hour or she may be tired. The daughter told her mother that she was not as tired as her mother thought. But since her mother said so, she decided to rest for a little while. Her mother said that after resting she would feel fresh and study better.

Ans:

Mother: Since you have been studying all morning, you should rest for an hour or you may get tired.

Daughter: I am not as tired as you think. But since you say so, I will rest for a little while.

Mother: After resting you would feel fresh and could study better.
