

Exercise A

Underline the subject and circle the predicate in the following.

1. Sally has found her lost book.
2. I have bought a new laptop.
3. We are going to watch a circus show this evening.
4. Sam and sally are twins.
5. Our church has fifty mute and deaf members.
6. The weather has been terrific this last week.
7. The orchestra played some of the best choral music.

Exercise B

Match the two parts correctly.

Subject	Predicate
Jack	Wants to taste all the sweets.
Rita	Is fond of books.
Sara	Is trying on the latest sandals and shoes.
Mrs Martin	Has bought lots of dresses.

Sara - is trying on the latest sandals and shoes.

Jack - wants to taste all the sweets.

Mrs Martin - has bought lots of dresses.

Rita - is fond of books.

Exercise C

Circle the subjects in the following.

1. Mother helps Joe with his homework.
2. Father drives to office every day.
3. I love my dog very much.
4. My house is still incomplete.
5. Jay got late due to the traffic jam.
6. The gardener is mowing the lawn.
7. The painter is polishing the doors and windows.
8. The entire city insisted on marching to the High Court in protest.
9. The Rajdhani Express is due to arrive at 9 pm.
10. Since last month, I have seen him only once.

Exercise D

Add predicates to the following subjects.

gave full attention to the teacher.

works very hard on his farm.

croaked and jumped into the pool.

sang melodiously.

pecks at my window every morning.

flitted from flower to flower seeking nectar.

loves to catch and eat fish.

1. The stork - loves to catch and eat fish.

2. The choir - sang melodiously.

3. The class - gave full attention to the teacher.

4. Uncle Jack - works very hard on his farm.

5. A frog - croaked and jumped into the pool.

6. The butterfly - flitted from flower to flower seeking nectar.

7. The woodpecker - pecks at my window every morning.

