

Exercises

(Page No. 63)

A. Underline the adverbs in the following sentences:

1. The boy goes to bed early.
2. A woodcutter works hard.
3. The birds sing sweetly.
4. That boy spoke to me kindly.
5. She writes badly.
6. He always speaks politely.
7. Hari writes neatly.
8. She lived happily.
9. He can do it easily.
10. She talks loudly.

(Page No. 64)

B. Underline the adverbs that tell us when things are done in the following sentences:

1. Raman came late.
2. He will come later.
3. We rise early.
4. I saw him yesterday.
5. He will come soon.
6. They will not go to school tomorrow.
7. Come to my office today.
8. You must do your work now.

(Page No. 65)

C. Underline the adverbs that tell us where things are done in the following sentences:

1. All the boys are playing outside.
2. They all looked down.

3. She looked for her missing notebook everywhere.
4. Walk four steps forward.
5. Put your bag here.
6. The robot moved backward.
7. Put it on the shelf above.
8. They have gone downstairs.
9. She lives there.
10. They are playing inside.

