

Exercises

Tick (✓) the correct answer.

1. Which of the following is referred to as the “graphical side” of the Internet?

Ans. (d) WWW

2. A collection of web pages is called

Ans. (a) Website

3. Any object which when clicked, opens the linked page is called

Ans. (c) Hyperlink

4. You use this to search for information

Ans. (c) Search Engine

5. Categorized information on various topics, which stores a lot of data related to a particular topic on a web page is called

Ans. (c) Internet Directories

6. A search engine has a search box to search for information.

Ans. (a) Search box

7. Important words in a search term are called

Ans. (b) Keywords

Fill in the blanks.

1. A hyperlink is a connection between two web pages.

2. The home page is the first page of a website.

3. In a search engine, you enter the search term in the search box.

4. A search term consists of keywords.

5. An e-mail address has the @ symbol in it.

6. In the Write e-mail window, you enter the e-mail address of the person(s) to whom you want to send the copy of the e-mail to in the Cc field.

Write (T) for true and (F) for false.

1. WWW is the graphical part of the Internet. T
2. A web page is a collection of websites. F
3. A Search Engine is a railway engine which works with electricity. F
4. Internet directories store a lot of information related to different topics. T
5. Adda (+) sign before a word to include it in your search. T
6. You cannot send pictures via e-mail. F
7. Bcc is an acronym for Behind Carbon Copy. F
8. Google Translate is a paid service. F

Answer in one word/sentence.

1. What is the graphical side of the Internet?

Ans. WWW

2. What is a Search Engine?

Ans. Search Engine is a website designed to search for information on WWW.

3. Define a web page.

Ans. It is a digital page of information that contain text, pictures, animation and sound.

4. What is a Hyperlink?

Ans. An image or portion of text which when clicked, opens the linked web page.

5. What is the address of any particular document on the Internet called?

Ans. URL

6. What is downloading?

Ans. Transfer of information from Internet onto the computer.

7. What is an attachment in E-mail?

Ans. Sending a picture, a song or a video clip with an e-mail.

8. What is the purpose of Google Translate?

Ans. To translate the written text from one language to another.

Give short answers.

1. What does WWW stand for?

Ans. WWW stand for World Wide Web.

2. What are keywords? Explain the significance of (+) and (-) signs used with keywords.

Ans. Keywords are the important words in our search term.

Use of + sign in front of the keyword to include it in search result.

Use of – sign to exclude it from search result.

3. Define E-mail.

Ans. E-mail is an electronic mail used to send and receive messages, audio, video and animation.

4. Name the fields in the composing window of e-mail and explain their purpose.

Ans. To – Here, enter the e-mail address of the person you are sending the e-mail to.

Subject – Enter a short description for your message.

Cc - Enter the e-mail address of the person(s) to whom you want to send the copy of the e-mail.

Bcc - Enter the e-mail address of the person(s) to whom you want to send a copy of the e-mail but you don't want the main recipient to know about it.

5. What is the difference between replying to and forwarding an e-mail?

Ans. When you want to reply to an e-mail, you don't need to compose a new e-mail you can use the reply link. To forward an e-mail, you need to type recipient's e-mail address. You can use forward link.

