

Think and Discuss

Q.1. What does 'the equal of a boy' mean?

Ans . The term 'the equal of a boy' means a girl having all the qualities that the boy has.

Q.2. Why is it important for boys and girls treated equally?

Ans. It is important for boys and girls to be treated equally because nowadays both have the same opportunities and play the same roles. Q.3. What happens when they are not treated equally?

Ans. When they are not treated equally, many problems develop, for example, a girl who does not receive the same education that a boy does is not able to do well in life.

Find Out: page. 68 (every answer will be personal therefore do it by yourself and get corrected by your teachers)

