

Exercise A

Punctuate the following. Use capital letters when necessary:

1. Sam ate a couple of ice creams.
2. A tourist stopped me and asked, "Where is the zoo?"
3. "Why are you making faces?", asked mother.
4. The food isn't sufficient for everyone.
5. Do you think you could help me?

Exercise B

Use capital letters, full stops and commas to rewrite the following in meaningful way:

1. Delhi stands on the Yamuna.
2. Our Independence Day is celebrated on 15th of August every year.
3. London is the capital of England.
4. The Indian Ocean washes the feet of Mother India.
5. The Andaman and Nicobar islands are on the Bay of Bengal.
6. Mt. Everest is the highest mountain peak in the world.
7. Pranab Mukharjee is the President of India.
8. December is the last month of the year.
9. The part of Delhi, where I lived, is called 'The Walled City'.
10. Every Sunday morning I go to church.

Exercise C

Put apostrophe with a s in the following sentences to show possession:

1. This is Raj's bed and that is Jack's bed.
2. The girl's PG accommodation is quite good.
3. He is expecting a month's salary in advance.
4. There is 50% discount in women's shoe section.
5. Mom's shopping list is quite long.

Exercise D

Insert commas where needed in the following:

1. Please son, don't talk in that tone.
2. Yes, I will be home all day on Sunday.
3. Can there be any fun living in a house, which has no windowpanes?
4. Sam asked, "May I borrow your pen, Sara?"

5. Apple, oranges, strawberries and grapes are my favourite fruits.

Chapter-: 20. Punctuation and use capital letters

Exercise E

Put the correct punctuation mark at the end of the following sentences:

1. Tom and Sam love apple pudding.
2. What a surprise!
3. "What I want to know is why you are late?"
4. "Raj Do you know the answer?"
5. What lovely roses!
6. We shall work on this project for another week.

